PRESS RELEASE: DRIVE PRODUCTS ACQUIRES H&H AUTO IN NEWFOUNDLAND

Drive Products is very excited to announce the acquisition of H&H Auto in St. John's, Newfoundland. The acquisition is part of Drive Products ongoing efforts to expand our national footprint with local operations within each province of Canada. The acquisition is focused solely on the snow & ice business that H&H Auto has developed as a Western Snowplow Dealer in Atlantic Canada.

H&H Auto has been serving the Newfoundland market since 1980, providing quality service in auto/paint restorations, custom interiors, snowplow installations, and specialty parts for vehicle transport. H&H Auto has been a strong local partner for Drive Products for many years helping to grow Western Snowplows in Newfoundland. They are the trusted experts in snow & ice equipment providing exceptional customer service to local end-users. Their success has allowed them to grow and evolve into other segments of upfitting and in recent years also became an authorized distributor for Voth Truck Bodies.

In addition, longtime member of Drive Products, John Brillinger will assume the role of Manager, Special Projects. John brings over 30+ years of experience working within sales & operations during his tenure at Drive Products and has played an integral role into the company's overall growth.

John Brillinger will be moving to St. John's to lead the development of our new Drive Products - St. John's operations developing core competencies to support key products and services such as PTO & Hydraulics, Bulk Transport, Driveline, Distribution, upfitting of truck bodies, equipment, snow & ice controls, and related truck accessories and winches. We are also happy to welcome current owner/operator Doreen Hamlyn to the Drive Products Family.
